

Salman Khan selects the final North team for Dance Premiere League

By Bollywood Hungama News Network, September 10, 2009 - 15:36 IST

Salman Khan surely seems the Most 'Wanted' actor right now in Bollywood. The Rockstar Khan is being seen here, there and everywhere promoting his new film Wanted. Recently Sallu even went to Delhi to select the final North team for the upcoming show 'Dance Premier League'.

'Dance Premier League' has been creating news right through its audition phases. After auditioning in Chandigarh, Amritsar and Delhi, the final team from the North was picked by Salman Khan. Sallu was joined by hosts Eijaz Khan and Sara Khan along with Shiamak Davar and Arshad Warsi who would be seen playing a key role in the show.

For the uninitiated, 'Dance Premier League' is a unique dance format that is soon to go on air on Sony Entertainment Television. It brings India's rich & diverse culture from each region - each with its own flavour and unique identity on one platform competing for regional pride. The show will have 5 teams from different zones of India (North, East, West, and South & Central) and 1 NRI team competing with one another to bring glory to their zone by winning. Each Zonal team will comprise of talented dancers selected through multi-city auditions across select cities in each zone. Each team will also be mentored by a celebrity choreographer as they chart their journey from anonymity to fame, from being a contender to a champion.